Attorneys for Plaintiff
United States of America

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

IVAN RUIZ-AVALOS,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 2:21-CR-00195-MCE

STIPULATION REGARDING USE OF
VIDEOCONFERENCING DURING FAST-TRACK
HEARING; FINDINGS AND ORDER

DATE: December 9, 2021
TIME: 10:00 a.m.
COURT: Hon. Morrison C. England, Jr.

BACKGROUND

On October 14, 2021, a grand jury returned an indictment charging the defendant, Ivan Ruiz-Avalos, with one count of being a previously deported alien found in the United States, in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326. ECF No. 7. The United States of America (the “government”) and the defendant entered into a plea agreement pursuant to the government’s Fast-Track Immigration Prosecution Program. This matter is now set for a combination change of plea and sentencing hearing under the Fast-Track program on December 9, 2021, at 10:00 a.m.

On March 27, 2020, Congress passed the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (the “CARES Act”). The CARES Act empowered the Judicial Conference of the United States and Chief District Judges to authorize plea and sentencing hearings by video or telephonic conference when such hearings cannot be conducted in person without seriously jeopardizing public health and safety, and “the district judge in a particular case finds for specific reasons that the plea or sentencing in that

1 case cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice.” Coronavirus Aid, Relief,
2 and Economic Security Act, Pub. L. No. 116-23, § 15002(b)(2), 134 Stat. 281, 527–29 (2020).

3 On March 29, 2020, the Judicial Conference of the United States made the findings required by 4 the CARES Act, concluding that “emergency conditions due to the national emergency declared by the
5 President under the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. § 1601, et seq.) with respect to the 6 Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) have materially affected and will materially affect the 7 functioning of the federal courts generally.”

8 On September 28, 2021, for the reasons set forth in General Orders 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615,
9 616, 617, 618, 620, 621, 624, 628, 630, 631, and 635, the Chief Judge of this District, per General Order
10 635, extended the findings and authorizations required by the CARES Act for another ninety days from 11 the date of entry of General Order 635. In order to authorize change of plea and sentencing hearings by 12 remote means, however, the CARES Act—as implemented by the General Orders listed above—also 13 requires district courts in individual cases to find, for specific reasons, that felony pleas and sentencings
14 cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice. Id. The General Orders listed
15 above require that the defendant consent to remote proceedings. Finally, remote proceedings must be 16 conducted by videoconference unless “video teleconferencing is not reasonably available.” Id. In such 17 cases, district courts may conduct hearings by teleconference. Id.

18 The parties hereby stipulate and agree that each of the requirements of the CARES Act and the 19 General Orders listed above have been satisfied in this case. They request that the Court enter an order
20 making the specific findings required by the CARES Act and the General Orders listed above.

21 Specifically, for the reasons further set forth below, the parties agree that:

22 1. The Fast-Track hearing in this case cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the 23 interest of justice, given the public health restrictions on physical contact, the fact that the parties have 24 reached a plea agreement to resolve this case, and the backlog of cases that is likely to increase in the 25 Eastern District of California if criminal matters do not resolve by videoconference when the defendant
26 consents and once an agreement has been reached between the parties;

27 ///

28 ///

2. The defendant waives his physical presence at the hearing and consents to remote hearing by videoconference; and

3. Defense counsel joins in that waiver.

STIPULATION

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and the defendant, by and through his counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

1. The Governor of the State of California declared a Proclamation of a State of Emergency to exist in California on March 4, 2020.

2. On March 13, 2020, the President of the United States issued a proclamation declaring a National Emergency in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

3. In their evolving guidance, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (the “CDC”) and other public health authorities have suggested the public avoid crowds, practice physical distancing between individuals, and wear masks in indoor settings under certain conditions to potentially slow the spread of COVID-19 and its variants, such as the highly contagious Delta variant.

4. On March 17, 2020, the Court issued General Order 611, noting the President's and Governor of California's emergency declarations and CDC guidance, and indicating that public health authorities within the Eastern District of California had taken measures to limit the size of gatherings and practice social distancing. General Order 612, which issued the following day, provided that if any criminal matters are maintained on calendar, to the fullest extent possible they should be conducted by telephone or videoconference.

5. General Order 614, issued on March 30, 2020, found that felony plea and sentencing hearings generally could not be conducted in person in this district without seriously jeopardizing public health and safety. General Order 614 also authorized, under authority of the CARES Act, videoconferencing and telephone conferencing in different criminal proceedings. General Order 614 allowed for use of videoconferencing technology for felony change of plea and sentencing hearings with the defendant's consent, if a judge finds that the hearing cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice.

1 6. On April 16, 2020, the Judicial Council of the Ninth Circuit declared a judicial
2 emergency in this district pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3174(d), based on the Eastern District of California's
3 critically low resources across its heavy caseload. The report accompanying the Judicial Council's
4 declaration analyzed the public safety dangers associated with the COVID-19 pandemic and examined
5 both the district's caseload (the Eastern District of California currently ranks first in the Ninth Circuit
6 and eighth nationally in weighted filings) and its shortage of judicial resources (the district is currently
7 authorized only six district judges, and two of those positions are currently vacant). The report further
8 explained that a backlog of cases exists that can only start to be alleviated when the CDC lifts its 9 guidance regarding gatherings of individuals.

10 7. General Orders 614, 616, 617, 618, 620, 621, 624, 628, 630, 632, and 635 have also made
11 findings and implemented temporary emergency procedures in response to the COVID-19 crisis, and
12 these General Orders either remain in effect or have been superseded by a subsequent General Order
13 extending their provisions.

14 8. Given these facts, it is essential that judges in this district resolve as many matters as 15 possible via videoconference and teleconference during the COVID-19 pandemic. By holding these 16 hearings now, this district will be in a better position to work through the backlog of criminal and civil 17 matters once in-person hearings resume to a pre-pandemic extent.

18 9. The Fast-Track hearing in this case accordingly cannot be further delayed without serious
19 harm to the interests of justice. If the Court were to delay this hearing until it can be held in person, it
20 would only add to the enormous backlog of criminal and civil matters facing the Court, and every judge
21 in this district, when normal operations resume.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

10. Under CARES Act § 15002(b), the defendant consents to proceed with the combination change of plea and sentencing hearing by videoconference. Defense counsel joins in this consent.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.

FINDINGS AND ORDER

1. The Court adopts the findings above.

2. Further, the Court specifically finds that:

a) The Fast-Track change of plea and sentencing hearing in this case cannot be further delayed without serious harm to the interests of justice; and

b) The defendant has waived his physical presence at the Fast-Track hearing and consents to remote hearing by videoconference.

3. Therefore, based on the findings above, and under the Court's authority under § 15002(b) of the CARES Act and General Orders 614 and 635, the combination change of plea and sentencing hearing in this case will be conducted by videoconference.
